Advocacy Resources

Advocacy is speaking out on issues that you care about and offering your opinion and suggestions for how to improve something to the people who are in control. The following organizations and coalitions provide important advocacy resources:

American Cancer Society Cancer Action Network www.acscan.org supports evidence based policy and legislative solutions to eliminate cancer as a major health problem and works to encourage elected officials and candidates to make cancer a top national priority.

C3: Colorectal Cancer Coalition www.fightcolorectalcancer.org demands a cure for colon and rectal cancer and pushes for changes in policy that will increase and improve research, and empower survivors to raise their voices against the status quo.

C-Change www.c-changetogether.org assembles cancer leaders from the private, public, and not-for-profit sectors across the continuum of prevention, early detection, treatment and quality of life.

Leukemia & Lymphoma Society www.lls.org the world's largest voluntary health agency dedicated to blood cancer.

Lung Cancer Alliance www.lungcanceralliance.org the only national non-profit organization dedicated exclusively to provide information, support and advocacy for people living with or at risk for lung cancer; helping patients, their families, and those at risk for the disease by raising national awareness and securing multiple millions in public health dollars for lung cancer research.

National Alliance of Prostate Cancer Coalitions www.naspc.org an umbrella organization encompassing participation by state prostate cancer coalitions, state prostate cancer task forces or state prostate cancer foundations.

NYS Breast Cancer Support & Education Network www.nysbcscen.org The New York State Breast Cancer Support and Education Network (NYSBCSEN) is a statewide coalition of not-for-profit organizations united in the fundamental belief that all people facing breast cancer, including those in their support network, have access to quality care, comprehensive support services and programs, and up-to-date information including: prevention and risk reduction, treatment options, and cancer related research efforts, including clinical trials in an effort to inspire the changes necessary to create a healthy environment and eradicate breast cancer from our lives.

One Voice Against Cancer www.ovaonline.org a collaboration of national non-profit organizations which delivers a unified message to leaders on the need for increased cancer-related appropriations.

Ovarian Cancer National Alliance www.ovariancancer.org advances the interests of women with ovarian cancer.

Pancreatic Cancer Action Network www.pancan.org advances research, supports research, creates hope.

Patient Advocate Foundation www.patientadvocate.org provides effective mediation and arbitration services to patients to remove obstacles to health care including medical debt crisis, insurance access issues, and employment issues for patients with chronic, debilitating and life threatening illnesses.

Susan G. Komen for the Cure® Advocacy Alliance www.komenadvocacy.org engages policy makers and opinion leaders to advocate for increased funding for breast cancer research and greater access to cancer screening and treatment.
